SUMMARY ORDER

Respondents.

Pursuant to the authority granted to Marc B. Minor, Chief of the New Jersey Bureau of Securities ("Bureau Chief"), under the Uniform Securities Law (1997), N.J.S.A. 49:3-47 et seq. ("Securities Law"), including N.J.S.A. 49:3-58 and N.J.S.A. 49:3-70.1, and certain regulations, and based on a review of the relevant facts, including documents obtained during the investigation by the New Jersey Bureau of Securities ("Bureau"), the Bureau Chief hereby finds that there is good cause and it is in the public interest to enter this Summary Order, and makes the following findings:

INTRODUCTION

Steven Kolinsky ("Kolinsky") and Stephen Elliot Hill ("Hill"), both of Upper Saddle River, have been business partners since 1991, and in 2001, formed Kolinsky-Hill Financial Group Inc. ("Kolinsky-Hill Financial"), a New Jersey financial services company. Kolinsky and Hill were registered agents and investment adviser representatives with various firms. Throughout the years, Kolinsky-Hill acquired several professional athlete clients who had substantial assets, but little investment knowledge or time to watch their money.

Beginning approximately 2007, Kolinsky and Hill solicited and raised approximately $5 million from these clients to invest in a complex development deal. Kolinsky and Hill did not disclose these investments to their broker-dealer, and sales material related to the deal contained false information about Hill's credentials. In 2008, Hill also orchestrated the creation of false documents, and the withdrawal over $1.7 million from a player's accounts to benefit Hill's wife's company, Gryphon-Hill, LLC. The fraudulent conduct, failed supervision, and complicity of respondents with respect to client accounts violate the Securities Law as detailed below.

C. UNDISCLOSED OUTSIDE BUSINESS ACTIVITIES OF KOLINSKY AND HILL RELATED TO LAND DEALS

i) STR

12. On June 25, 2004, Kolinsky and Hill formed STR, whose business was to develop residential real estate.

13. Kolinsky and Hill built two houses, through STR, without any additional investors.

14. In approximately May 2005, Kolinsky and Hill , on behalf of STR, solicited and sold securities to at least three (3) of Kolinsky's NFP clients, to fund the purchase and development of at least one property located at 23 Elden Drive, Saddle River, New Jersey.⁴

15. As a result of Kolinsky and Hill's solicitation, the NFP clients each invested at least $250,000.

16. Although Kolinsky and Hill had disclosed "STR Realty" on their outside business activity forms, they failed to disclose that the business involved the solicitation and sale of securities.

ii) Crown

17. In April 2006, Crown, through Hill, solicited Hill's NFP client, C.F., to invest in a company "acquiring a parcel of real property including an interest real property located in Franklin Lakes, New Jersey for the purpose of developing such property as a single family residence." Upon reliance on Hill's solicitation, C.F. invested $300,000.

18. The terms of C.F.'s investment were set forth in an agreement with Crown dated April 2006 ("Crown Agreement") and provided that in consideration for C.F.'s $300,000 investment:

"[a]t or prior to the end of the term, Crown shall remit to C.F. the principal investment of $300,000.00 plus the greater of: (i) seventy-five thousand ($75,000.00); or (ii) eight (8%) percent of the net profit Crown shall have earned from Crown's sale of the Property after taking into account all of Crown's costs, disbursements and expenses including the payments made to C.F...." The term of the investment was "the earlier of (i) eighteen (18) months from the date of the execution of this agreement, or (ii) the sale of the property."

On May 3, 2007, Crown paid C.F. $348,000, $27,000 short of the $375,000 required by the Crown Agreement.

iii) Hackensack Park Plaza

19. On October 17, 2005, Schmidt, on PIP's behalf, entered into an agreement to purchase ("Purchase Agreement"), a seven acre parcel of land located along the Hackensack River in Hackensack, New Jersey ("Hackensack Parcel") for approximately $14,000,000.00.

20. On or about February 2007 Schmidt, on PIP's behalf, agreed to assign the Purchase Agreement to River Street, owned and controlled by PIP and K&K.

21. On October 29, 2007, the members of River Street agreed to assign the Purchase Agreement to Hackensack Park Plaza.

22. Subsequently, Kolinsky and Hill, on behalf of Hackensack Park Plaza, began soliciting their NFP clients to purchase Class B Non-Voting Limited Liability Units in Hackensack Park Plaza ("Hackensack Securities"). As a result, Hill and Kolinsky sold $5,000,000 worth of Hackensack Securities to at least eight (8) NFP clients that included C.F. and other current and former Major League Baseball players.

23. The Hackensack Park Plaza Private Placement Memorandum that was purportedly provided to one or more investors stated that Hill "received a Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Finance from the University of Buffalo in New York in 1987."

24. Hill did not graduate from college.

25. Upon information and belief, by assignment and assumption dated November 14, 2007, Hackensack Park Plaza assumed the obligations and benefits of the Purchase Agreement.

26. On November 20, 2007, Hackensack Park Plaza finalized the sale of the Hackensack Parcel.

27. To date, the property has not been resold or developed.

D. Kolinsky and Hill Failed to Adequately Disclose to NFP Their Outside Business Activities and Their Solicitation of NFP Clients for Unapproved Investments

28. On or about January 18, 2005, Kolinsky signed a NFP Outside Business Activities Form ("Form"). Ciano signed the Form above the "OSJ Manager Signature." On the Form, Kolinsky disclosed "STR Realty" as an outside business. Kolinsky identified Hill and Dichiaro Builder LLC as his partners identifying the nature of the business as "construction - homebuilding."

29. In response to question #10 on the Form - "Are you aware of any potential conflicts of interest your involvement in [STR Realty] may pose?" - Kolinsky responded "None."

30. In response to question #11 on Form - "Have you ever or do you intend to recommend investment in or the purchase of or sale of securities of [STR Realty]?" - Kolinsky responded "no."

31. In response to question #13 on the Form - "Have you ever raised money for [STR Realty]?" - Kolinsky responded "no."

32. Also, on or about January 18, 2005, Hill completed and signed NFP Outside Business Activities Form ("Hill Form"). On the Hill Form, Hill disclosed STR Realty as an outside business. Hill identified Kolinsky and Dichiaro Builder LLC as his partners identifying the nature of the business being "construction - homebuilding."

33. In response to question #10 on the Hill Form - "Are you aware of any potential conflicts of interest your involvement in [STR Realty] may pose?" - Hill responded "None."

34. In response to question #11 on the Hill Form - "Have you ever or do you intend to recommend investment in or the purchase of or sale of securities of [STR Realty]?" - Hill responded

"no."

35. In response to question #13 on the Hill Form - "Have you ever raised money for [STR Realty]?" - Hill responded "no."

36. Directly above Kolinsky's and Hill's signatures, the Forms stated "I hereby warrant that the above information is current and accurate to the best of my knowledge. In addition, I agree to promptly notify NFP Securities, Inc., my OSJ Manager, of any material changes by amending this request."

37. The NFP's Registered Representative Manuals for the relevant period provided that an Outside Business Activities Form be submitted to report any business activity outside of NFP.

38. Additionally, the NFP's Registered Representative Manuals for the relevant period also provided that the registered representative is responsible for keeping the Outside Business Activities information current and should submit amended forms to report any changes in activities.

39. As part of its compliance procedures, NFP required its registered representatives to complete an electronic annual compliance survey, available on NFP's website, which questioned whether all outside business activities were disclosed, accurate and complete.

40. Neither Kolinsky nor Hill updated their Outside Business Activity Form in May 2005, when in order to finance the purchase and development of 23 Elden Drive, Kolinsky and Hill, solicited and sold securities to Kolinsky's NFP clients.

41. Kolinsky and Hill engaged in selling away when they solicited NFP clients to invest in a private securities transaction without prior approval from NFP.

42. At all relevant times, NFP's policies prohibited selling away.

E. The Solicitation and Purported Sale of Snap-on Smile Securities to C.F.

43. Kolinsky became the representative of record for most, if not all, of the customer accounts at the branch when he became registered at Royal Alliance in June 2008.

44. Glassberg became registered with Royal Alliance in August 2008. Hill and Ciano did not become registered with Royal Alliance until September 2008.

45. When Ciano became registered with Royal Alliance, Kolinsky and Ciano ran the office as they had at NFP. Ciano performed supervisory responsibilities that were delegated to him at NFP.

46. Royal Alliance's supervisory manuals, however, required that any delegation of supervisory duties be submitted and approved through a Delegation of Supervisory Tasks Form.

47. No Delegation of Supervisory Tasks Form was signed by Kolinsky and Ciano until January 22, 2009.

48. When Hill, Ciano and Glassberg became registered with Royal Alliance, Kolinsky remained the representative of record for most, if not all, of the accounts.

49. Kolinsky was C.F.'s representative of record from September 2008 through April 2010 for CF's Royal Alliance account number ending in 587.

50. On or about October 3, 2008, Hill solicited C.F. to invest $103,000 in Snap-on Smile. Relying upon the conversation with Hill, C.F. agreed to invest $103,000 in Snap-on Smile.

51. Although C.F. had only agreed to invest $103,000, Hill caused three transfers totaling approximately $1,800,000 to be made from C.F.'s accounts to SOS OPCO's bank account.

Authorized Transfer

52. On October 3, 2008, Hill directed Ciano to make the transfers of C.F.'s money. To effectuate the transfers, Ciano e-mailed C.F.'s accountant, who had authorization over C.F.'s funds, directing the accountant's office to transfer $103,000 to SOS OPCO's bank account. Upon reliance of Ciano's e-mail, C.F.'s accountant transferred $103,000 from C.F.'s bank account to an SOS OPCO bank account.

Unauthorized Transfers

53. Within hours of the request to transfer $103,000.00 and without C.F.'s permission, Ciano created two additional requests for transfer of funds to be sent to Pershing LLC ("Pershing"), Royal Alliance's clearing firm.

54. The first request for transfer of funds ("First Request") Ciano created was addressed to Pershing from C.F., and directed Pershing to transfer $220,000 from C.F.'s account to SOS OPCO's bank account. Although the First Request purported to contain C.F.'s original signature, the signature was copied and applied without C.F.'s authorization from a Kolinsky-Hill Financial file. Ciano sent the First Request to Royal Alliance's operations department which then forwarded the falsified transfer instruction on to Pershing. Upon reliance of the falsified document, Pershing transferred $220,000 from C.F.'s Royal Alliance account ending in 6917 to SOS OPCO's bank account.

55. On October 3, 2008, Ciano also created a second request for transfer of funds ("Second Request") addressed to Pershing from "C.F." for $1,477,000 and directed Pershing to transfer the funds from C.F.'s account ending in 3587 to SOS OPCO's bank account. The Second Request was returned requiring a Medallion Signature Guarantee.

56. The Medallion Signature Guarantee is an industry accepted guarantee intended to convey that the customer signature is authentic.

57. Ciano notified Hill of the Medallion Signature Guarantee requirement. Ciano, aware that C.F. had not been in the office that day, gave the Second Request to Kolinsky's secretary for a Medallion Signature Guarantee. Kolinsky was the only person in the branch authorized to execute a Medallion Signature Guarantee. Although Kolinsky was not in the office that day, a Medallion Signature Guarantee was on the transfer form when Ciano received the Second Request back.

58. Ciano then resent the Second Request to Royal Alliance's operations department which forwarded it to Pershing. Pershing then transferred $1,477,000 from C.F.'s Royal Alliance account to SOS OPCO's bank account.

59. C.F. was not aware that $1.8 million was transferred from his accounts to Snap-on Smile.

60. In or about November 20, 2009, Hill contacted C.F. and solicited C.F. to invest an "additional" $150,000 in Snap-on Smile. C.F., believing he had only invested $103,000, agreed to invest the purported additional $150,000.

61. On November 20, 2009, $150,000 was transferred from C.F.'s account at Royal Alliance to SOS OPCO's bank account.

62. On or about October 3, 2008, Gryphon-Hill and SOS OPCO executed a "Secured Promissory Note" which provided that in exchange for $2,000,000 from Gryphon-Hill, SOS OPCO agreed to pay Gryphon-Hill "interest at a rate per annum equal to twenty percent (20%) on the aggregate unpaid principal balance..."

63. Gryphon-Hill used the $1.8 million transferred to SOS OPCO from C.F.'s accounts plus $100,000 each from Hill and Glassberg to finance the Secured Promissory Note with SOS OPCO.

64. Also on October 3, 2008, SOS Holdings entered the "Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement" ("Holdings Operating Agreement") which stated, among other things, that the managing members of SOS Holdings included Glassberg, and that Glassberg would be one of the managers of SOS Holdings, SOS OPCO and SOS IPCO.

65. During Hill's solicitation of C.F. on or about October 3, 2008 to invest in SOS OPCO, Hill failed to disclose to C.F. material facts including that:

- a. Hill would be taking $1,800,000 from C.F. to invest in SOS OPCO;
- b. Gryphon-Hill, not C.F., would be receiving the benefit of C.F.'s investment in Snap-on Smile,;
- c. Gryphon-Hill was involved in the transaction, nor that it was controlled by Hill's wife and Glassberg; and
- d. Hill's wife was a beneficial owner of the investment.

Hill and Glassberg Failed to Disclose to Royal Alliance Their Outside Business Activities

66. At all relevant times, Royal Alliance's policies required the disclosure of outside business activities to the firm and prohibited advisors from borrowing money from clients.

67. Royal Alliance's compliance procedures required its financial advisors to complete annual certifications attesting to the financial adviser's outside business activities.

68. Contrary to Royal Alliance's policies, Hill failed to disclose to Royal Alliance that he was soliciting investments on behalf of Gryphon-Hill and that he would be soliciting C.F., a Royal Alliance client.

69. Contrary to Royal Alliance's policies, Glassberg failed to disclose to Royal Alliance that he was a manager of Gryphon-Hill and that Gryphon-Hill was raising money from C.F., a Royal Alliance client.

70. Although Kolinsky was the representative of record on C.F.'s account, he failed to detect or question the fact that in October 2008, C.F.'s Royal Alliance account has a withdrawal of $1,476,000.00, leaving a balance of $266.52.
